BASKETBALL . . .

The Wagar Jockettes (Ellen "One Shot" Katz, Jody "Animal" Romiti, Pammy "Socks" Simon, Marcy "Party" Ellen, Marcela "Fists" Donoso, Usha "Who?" Seshadri, Linda "Rebound" Babins, Randy "What Foul?" Margoless, Fabienne "Captain" Michot) got off to an enthusiastic start this year. Under the guidance of their new coach, Miss Sanford, the team stuck together through thick and thin. With love and support from absent (minded) manager, Patricia Nitken, the team gained weight, but no height. Their motto: Meet you in the W.B.A.! For the 1st time in a while, Wagar has a bantam girls' basketball team: a group of grade 7's and 8's courageous enough to bare the "humour" of their coaches. We may see THEM in the W.B.A.!

The senior edition Panthers got off to a sluggish land start for the 1980-81 campaign. But under the tutelage of "Calm, Cool and Collected Coach Chuprun," the team produced a surprising turnaround. With the acquisition of two very attractive "team groupies," the boys realised their troubles were behind them and overcame serious lack of height and IQ in slashing their way to a sudden-death playoff against rival Bialik High. Unfortunately, Wagar was eliminated, but succeeded in achieving a 7-3 record. The team was the proverbial example of brain overcoming brawn. Truly the pride of Wagar, the midget boys played well over their heads while enjoying an undefeated season. Going into training with very little experience, the team emerged hardened vets, largely due to the rigorous early morning practices of coach McEwen. Combining a smooth offense, intimidating defense and solid ballhandling, the guys seem headed for the city championship.

Under the direction of "Emotionless Aitken" and "Beardless Butler," the bantam guys survived the regular season undefeated. The team, characterized by potent offense and impregnable defense, scared its opponents with its innovative ball press. This bunch has a great future!

Wagar's Big Shots

This year, as in the past, Wagar has excelled in the areas it is so well known for - shot put and hurdles. The shot putting team, consisting of: Lucien Leveault, Fernando Donoso and Evan Albert, has consistently placed in the top five during countless track meets. In hurdles, Bruce Kahn has for the past 3 years been an active participant on the Wagar team, as well as winning two pentathalons and placing second in the province last year. We on the team feel that word is due for our hard working coach, Mr. McEwen, who is the man who can be seen reclining behind his oversized desk pretending to work on something important. We have always wondered how he manages to do this while his feet rest ever so comfortably on his desk. Once again he has outdone himself by revolutionizing the system used at track meets with the help of Usha Seshadri, Marcella Donoso and our resident physiotherapist, Randy Margolese. The pentathalon is another event in which the team is becoming noted for according to last year's participant Harold Heft. "We would have won in the team category if we had had one more midget boy on the team." A mention is due to Jodi Romiti who qualified last year for the provincials but couldn't go and has since dropped out of the competition because of bad knees. Filling the position is Linda Babins who's only been on the team for 2 years, but is already starting to place in the hurdles.

This year's badminton team, coached by Mrs. Gartner, consisted mainly of junior, female Wagarites. Most of the girls were rookies, which accounts for their mediocre season. There were two big winners, however. Marie Nahm and Trudy White, both veterans of the game, each played singles and won. Hopefully, this year's members will return in 1981-82 for more victories.

SWIMMING

This year saw the return of the Wagar swim team. The 4 meets were held at John F. Kennedy High School. Sixteen Wagarites qualified for the city championships. Everyone enjoyed the meets and had a great splash!!

"What happened to the pool?"

"What do you mean the race is over?"

"Fly away, be free!"

"Praise the Lord."

"It's a bird, it's a plane, it's . . ."

"Swing your partner, arm in arm."

"Are you sure?"

"?!?!?"
