This year's midget soccer team was not exactly a success story, but a disaster it was not. Mr. Fabb brought his boys to a 1-5 won, loss record. This isn't too bad considering the youth of the team. Their outstanding players were Marcel Petriano and Dov Ohnoua. They should do well in the future. Good luck guys.

Well folks, what can I say about this year's Bantam soccer team? They were the most successful bantam soccer team in Wagar's soccer history. They went 3-4-1 in the historic season. These three wins are very impressive for Wagar, being that Wagar's soccer teams consider it a milestone to win one game, and a tie game used to be considered a moral victory. Led this year by fleet-footed trio of Peter Kontogiannis, Eugene Plawutsky, and Cedric Newman, this team has great potential for their upcoming season. Best of luck to you guys.

Cross Country

This year's cross country team can be summed up in a phrase; quality, not quantity. Not many runners showed up this year, but those who did trained hard and were very successful in their one major cross country meet. Special congratulations go out to Annabella Lubin, a midget girl, who ran 3.2km in 14 minutes and won first prize in a field of 77 runners. In that same field, Dina Siegel finished 17th.

In the 4.1km midget boy race, David Rossman finished 13th in a field of 122 and in the Jevvenile boy category, Wagar's only runner was Robert Rothenberg, who finished 34th in a field of 171, in a 5.6km race.

Mr. Superstein, coach & trainor, was pleased with his team's results. However, he'd like to see more people meet the special challenge of cross country running at Wagar.

Midget Girl's Volleyball

Mr. Chuprun's team found it quite difficult to play with three quarters of a volleyball, but once they found the missing quarter, their record improved dramatically. Led by stalwarts Ella Wilofsky and Staci Gould, the team volleyed their way to a respectable 11-26 record, which they managed in an incredibly difficult division. For the first time, Wagar's team hosted a number of tournaments. This team, Wagar's only volleyball hope, can only improve with age. Good luck gals.

Juvenile Boys Basketball

Well, what can I tell Y'all 'bout this here Juvenile hoop team. Well I says we go dun start at the top with the coach, Diane Ross. She has taken this bunch of athletes when no one else would. She provides spirit for this team when there is none.

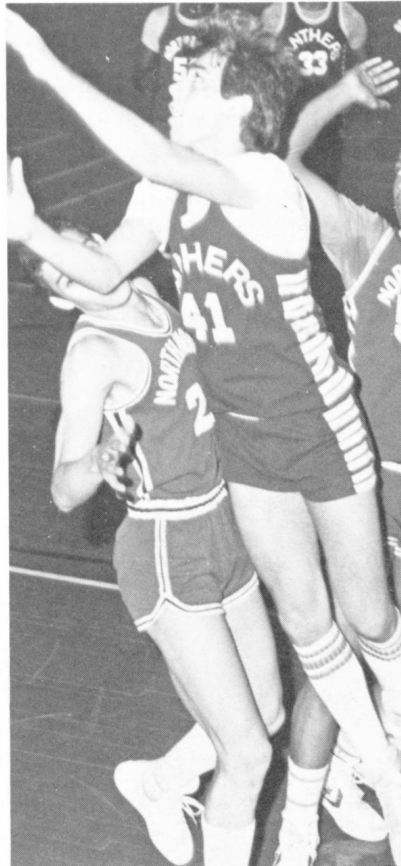

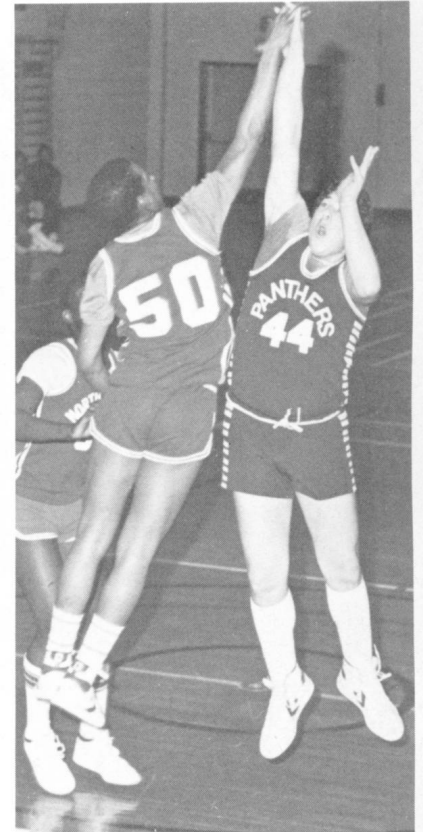

Starting on this year's team is Gary "the incredible hulk" Jonas, David "swish" Steiner, Jeff Wolfe, Richard Azoulay and platooning at guards are Bobby Abrams and Jeff Edelstein. This team should compile a winning record, despite two early losses to Lasalle. They will, however, make the playoffs. Good luck to the team and all those who made it what it is.

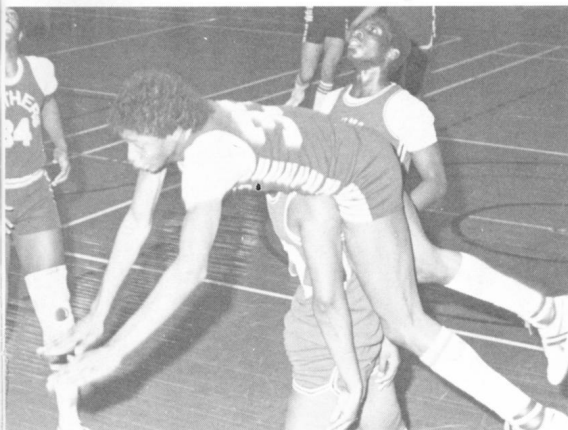

Midget Boys Basketball

This year's Midget Boys team is the pride of Wagar. Coach Butler's boys have been rolling along with no problems. Led by the ominous Robert Ferguson, the Midget team almost looks unstoppable in the GMAA. Sweet shooting off guard Kiki Ezerzer and steady point guard Earl Friedman provide a very solid backcourt for the team. Flanked by bruising rebounders Rod Hampden and D. Mrejen they could be called complete. They've got a solid bench, and Glen Rosenoff provides a good shot from the outside and power moves on the inside. This team is on its way.

Bantam Boys Basketball

I can say a lot about this year's team, but I won't. They are young. They are eager. They have a good coach. They are also currently 0-9, but have only two grade 8 are in a tough division and league.

Their key players are Randy Goldberg and David Rosenberg. There is little they can do surrounded by such youth but time will tell for these guys and their team.

This year is a tad disappointing for coach Jim Aitken and for Richard Azoulay, his assistant, but next year holds a ton of promise. Time is on their side (yes it is).

Gymnastics

This year's gymnastics team was really on the beam. The girls really got into the swing of things. Their favorite activity was bar hopping and they proved themselves to be real swingers. And everyone flipped over their floor routines!

Bowling Team

The great tradition of Wagar bowling was continued this year as Mr. Center took it upon himself to coach the most noisy and obnoxious group of boys he could find. Well, he found them and coached the team into the playoffs.

With players such as Richie Rosenbloom, Larry Bero, and Steven Eichler need I say more? The team bowled their guts out and smoked their minds to a winning record.

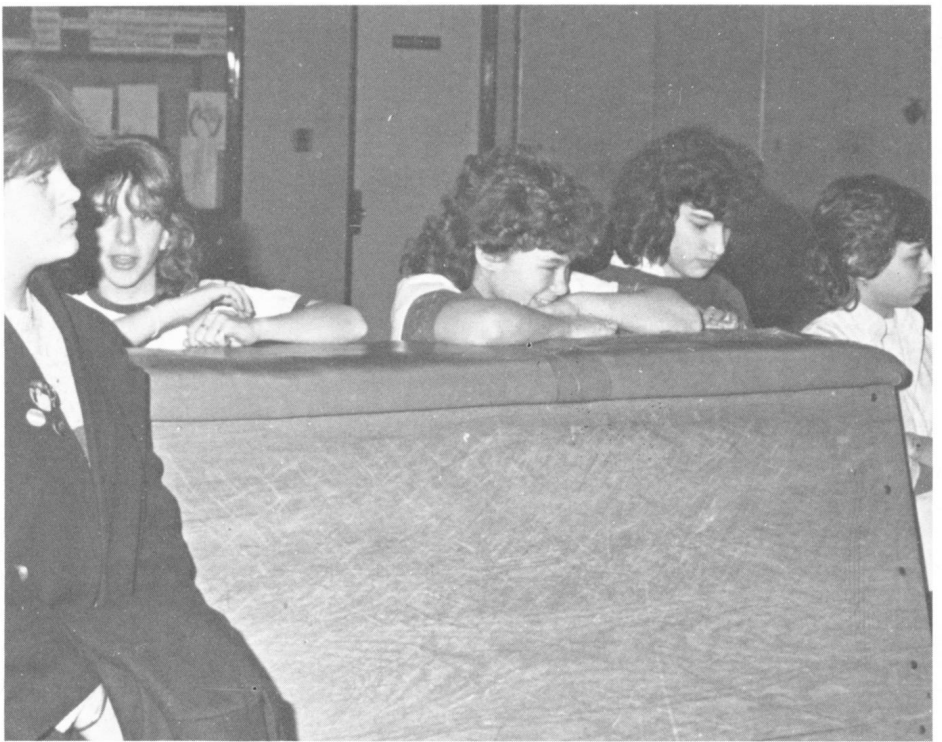

One must congratulate Mr. Center for living through the year. We feel he deserves the Purple Heart for courage, but that he might need a straight jacket and a room at the Douglas come May.

Go get 'em guys . . . bowl your way into our hearts.

Tennis Clinic

During the fall months, Wagar was visited by Rejean Genois, the top ranked professional tennis player in Quebec (He's been to Wimbledon and everything). Mr. Genois conducted a tennis clinic for Wagar's budding tennis stars. Mr. Levine looked smashing (or volleying) in his blue Adidas sweat suit. Our tennis team gained immeasurable guidance from Mr. Genois and his assistant.

Thank you Mr. Genois, may you one day rise above everyone else and win some major tennis tournament in a foreign country.
